Worship

We have been thinking about humility this week. Humility means not thinking you are better than others, even if you are very good at something. It is about being kind, sharing, and thinking of other people's needs before your own, rather than bragging or needing to be the centre of attention. A humble person is confident but quiet about it - it's not always easy, but we all try hard to be the Good Samaritan and learn from Jesus.....

With the Mental Health Support
Team
In the school hall

- Understanding your child's emotions
- Supporting your child with their emotions
- Understanding and problem solving your child's behaviour

Bikeability for Year 4 children is coming up soon. Please make sure you have signed up for your child if they want to take part.

Reading Buddies - our reading buddies are enjoying listening to children read, and sharing stories and talking about their books at lunchtimes. Each class has a day to read to the buddies, earning dojos and hoping to get their certificates and prizes!!

Coffee Morning
Please join us on Friday 15th May, at 9.00am for a coffee/tea and a biscuit!! Our Mental Health Practitioner is coming to talk about emotional regulation, which many of our children struggle with - come and find out about more about understanding emotions and how to support your child.
