SHAKESPEARE WEEK

4th-8th March

We are looking forward to our Shakespeare week, when we will all be learning about the classic play of Midsummer Night's Dream. There will be lots of activities going on all week, including a dress up day on Thursday 7th March to celebrate World Book Day. The children and staff are welcome to dress up as characters from Midsummer Night's Dream or any story book characters. We love a themed week!

We are raising money to buy some new books for our recently refurbished Library. If everyone can please bring £1 on World Book Day, we will be able to buy lots of new books! Thank you

Parents Evening

Monday 26th February

Parents evening appointment request letters have been sent out for Parents Evening. If you haven't already, please fill it in and return it to your teacher as soon as you can, to ensure you get a time which suits you. We will have questionnaires on the night - so we can collect some parent voice about our Relationships and Health Curriculum. Thank you

Worship

Our fabulous Worship Team joined the small congregation at St Mary's Church on Wednesday, to take part in the Holy Communion service. Their singing filled the church and was enjoyed by everyone there...

In school, we have been thinking about Love and the verse in the Bible which says,
"Love one another, as I have loved you" ❤️
 We know that the more love we show to others, the more love we have in our hearts.

Story Jar Competition

Children are invited to think about how their favourite storybook could be represented in a jar, for example, by using certain items, quotes or clues about the story. Each jar should be constructed to uniquely tell a story. When you have completed your jar, bring it into your class by Wednesday 6th March. The class teacher will choose two winning jars which will go forward to the whole school final. On Friday 8th March, during celebration worship we will reveal the winners. They will receive prizes!
